

CURRICULUM VITAE

Gioula Koutsopanagou, B.A, M.A., Ph.D.

Research Centre for Modern History (KENI) /Department of Political Science & History
Panteion University

youlakou@gmail.com

She is founding director of ETMIET/KENI. Ph.D. and M.A., International History, London School of Economics, B.A., Department of History and Archeology, University of Athens. She worked at the Institute of Modern Greek Research/National Research Foundation as a research assistant (1986- 1988), associate (1996-1998), project coordinator and co-editor for the Encyclopedia of the Greek Press, 1784-1974, 4vols, INE/EIE, 2008. Senior researcher (1998 - 1999) with responsibility for the Audiovisual Archives at the Hellenic Audiovisual Institute (IOM) of the former Press and Media Ministry. Lecturer on contract (1998 to 2008), Department of Political Science and History, Panteion University, and Hellenic Open University (2015/6-present). She is member of the European Society for Periodical Research (ESPRit) Committee since October 2020 [ <http://www.espr-it.eu/>].

Her research interests include cultural diplomacy, media history, culture and communication, the Greek diaspora and emigration media, history of the Cold War.

She is the author of two academic monographs: The British Press and the Greek Crisis, 1943-1949: Orchestrating the Cold-War 'Consensus' in Britain, Palgrave Macmillan (Palgrave Studies in the History of Media series), 2020 [ <https://www.palgrave.com/gp/book/9781137551542> ], British Cultural, Information and Publicity Policy in Greece, 1943 - 1950. Exercising Public Diplomacy in the formative years of the Cold War, preface by David Ricks, (Peter Lang Ltd, International Academic Publishers, 2022) [ <https://www.peterlang.com/document/1282551> ] and she is currently writing a monograph that has been commissioned by Palgrave Macmillan.

Recent publications:

<https://www.routledge.com/products/9780367182755>

<https://www.routledge.com/The-British-Council-and-Anglo-Greek-Literary-Interactions-1945-1955-1st/Mackridge-Ricks/p/book/9781472470348>

<https://openjournals.ugent.be/jeps/article/id/71446/>